Summary

Ohca Dd Member Call: Surveys and Workforce

Josh welcomed everyone to the Ohca Dd Member call and informed that Debbie and Pete were absent due to hosting a Fall conference for their skilled nursing facilities. Josh then discussed the importance of the Agency provider survey, emphasizing its role in justifying budget increases and understanding the workforce situation. He provided the survey link and encouraged everyone to fill it out by September 30th. Additionally, Josh mentioned another survey about the workforce crisis, which is more for national information, and added its link to the chat.

Training Sessions, Meetings, and Survey Process

Josh discussed various training sessions and meetings, including an Ohio ISP training, a training for Survey Support Agents (SSAs), and a regular provider training series. He also mentioned a meeting with the Department of Health regarding the survey process. Josh encouraged team members to provide input for the Ohio ISP training and to suggest topics for discussion in the upcoming meeting with the Department of Health. He also reminded the team about the Medicaid managed care open enrollment period and the launch of the Outcome Tracking System (OTS). The next call will be led by Josh, with possible involvement of colleagues like Pete.
